

Program

Temporalities In Migration Law International Conference on the Temporal Dimensions of Migration Law

1-2 June 2023

Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam

VRIJE
UNIVERSITEIT
AMSTERDAM

Amsterdam Centre for Migration and Refugee Law

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

UPPSALA
FORUM

democracy, peace & justice

Thursday 1 June

- 9:30 - 10:00 Registration (with coffee and tea), location: Theater 5, NU-Building
- 10:00 –10:10 Opening Hemme Battjes, Dean of Law Faculty of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam
- 10:10 - 10:20 Preliminary Reflections
- 10:20 - 10:30 Musical Intermezzo, Juliana Hahn & Mauro Cottone
- Appalachia Waltz by Mark O Connor
  - No.4 of the 2 part Inventions by Bach
  - Air on the G String By Bach
- 10:30 – 11:30 Keynote 1: Melanie Griffiths ‘Time and Migration Studies: Retrospect and prospect’
- 11:45 – 13:00 Workshop round 1
1. The Juridical Times of Migration and the Human Right to Time: Problem-setting
Room NzU-4B43
Chair: Elizabeth Cohen
    - Martijn Stronks, The Human Right to Time
    - Junteng Zheng, Temporal Schizophrenia: The Multiple Times of International Migration Law
    - Patricia Mindus, Institutional facts, migration, juridical time – Some broad brushstrokes
  2. Time & Asylum:
Room NU-6A52
Chair: Thomas Spijkerboer
    - Davide Tomaselli and Roberta Maria Aricò, What stands between asylum claims and status recognition? The controversial role of time in the asylum adjudication of SOGIESC asylum seekers and sex-trafficked migrant women before the Court of Florence
    - Kristoffer Jutvik and Haqqi Bahram, Running out of time – A study on the link between temporal governance and refugee settlement in Sweden
    - Eden Roberts, How Illegalised Onward Migrants in Amsterdam Negotiate the EU's Temporal Borders
- 13:00 - 14:00 Lunch
- 14:15 - 15:30 Workshop round 2
3. Temporal Governance Strategies
Room NU-4A45
Chair: Luigi Corrias
    - Janna Wessels, Time interrupted, time created: State tactics to prevent or appeal adverse judgments regarding their migration control policies at the ECtHR
    - Eva van der Graaf, Slowness in the Administration of Justice, Value or Vice? A consideration of the significance of law's temporality against the backdrop of emerging technologies
    - Katja Swider, Retroactivity in nationality decisions

4. Temporalities of Families, Couples and Children

Room NU-4A54

Chair: Younous Arbaoui

- Bahija Aarrass, Family life on hold. Waiting periods as a means of governing family reunification of migrants
- Betty de Hart and Nina Fokkink, 'How long have you been together?' The Role of Time in The Detection of Marriages of Convenience in The Netherlands
- Jean-Baptiste Farcy, The right to family reunification of protected persons: a race against the clock?

5. Temporal Variations of Permanence and Citizenship:

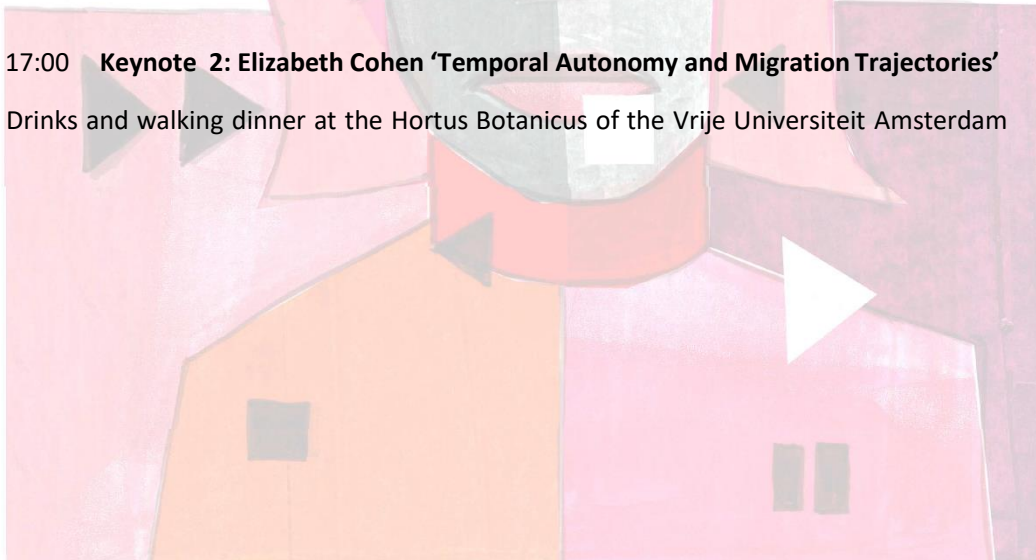

Room NU-6A45

Chair: Jordan Dez

- a. Anja Bossow, Citizenship as an (Im)permanent Status
- b. Abdullah Yassen, Thomas McGee and Chra Jabbar Ahmed, Time Not Counted: The Non-applicability of Naturalisation and Temporary Residency Provisions for Refugees in Iraq
- c. Elina Jonitz, Exploring the intersection of policy logics and temporalities immigration law

16:00 – 17:00 Keynote 2: Elizabeth Cohen 'Temporal Autonomy and Migration Trajectories'

17:30 Drinks and walking dinner at the Hortus Botanicus of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam

Friday 2 June

9:00 -- 9:30 Coffee and tea, location: Theater 5

9:30 – 10:30 Keynote 3: Daniel Thym 'European Migration Law: Added Value of 'Temporalities' and their Limits'

10:45 – 12:00 Workshop round 3

6. Time - Identity, Integration, Work

Room NU-4B17

Chair: Melanie Griffiths

- Nuno Ferreira, Asylum, identity, and time: The experiences of queer Iranians in exile
- Lieneke Slingenbergh, Time to work. Temporal governance of asylum seekers' access to employment
- Matteo Bottero, Integration Rights for Temporary Labour Migrants in the European Union

7. Regularisation - Duldung

Room NU-6A25

Chair: Daniel Thym

- a. Annett Bochmann, The Production of a Temporary Legal Institution: Deportation Suspension
- b. Gianna Eckert, Whose time counts? Toleration and novel opportunities for regularisation
- c. Stephanie Schneider, Rhythms of Suspension: Tolerated persons' experiences of variation in administratively set time frames

12:00 - 13:00 Lunch

13:00 - 14:15 Workshop round 4

8. Detention Time

Room NU-2B17

Chair: Nanda Oudejans

- a. Bas Schotel, Time, Indifference and Long Term Pre-Removal Immigration Detention
- b. Elisa Fornalé, Temporal (In)Humanity: Slow Violence and Migrants Families Detention in the USA
- c. Marielys Padua Soto, Time as an Exercise of Governmental Control on Immigration Detention

9. Time & Asylum

Room NU-2B18

Chair: Galina Cornelisse

- a. Nataliya Tchernalykh, Time and the Migrant Child
- b. Greta Albertari, The introduction of temporal borders through the proliferation of speedy asylum procedures. The cases of Italy and Greece
- c. Jonas Bornemann and Francesco Maiani, Temporal Governance and the Production of Precarity in European Migration Law

10. EU-Time

Room NU-4B17

Chair: Patricia Mindus

- a. Giulia Cristiano, How temporal conditionality affects migrants' rights in the EU?
- b. Sandra Mantu, Legal time and categorization in EU citizenship
- c. Dion Kramer, Earning Social Citizenship and the Moralisation of Time

14:30 – 15:30 Closing session

